

New Mexico Library Foundation
2020 Community Relief Micro Grants
Recipient List

Alvarado Elementary School - Albuquerque, NM.

$500 to buy high interest ebooks to the collection so that students will have equitable and immediate access to library materials during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Cottonwood Classical Preparatory School - Albuquerque, NM.

$500 to buy professional development titles to the collection for teaching staff on the topics of virtual learning, diversity, media literacy, and pedagogy.

David F. Cargo El Valle de Anton Chico Library - Anton Chico, NM.

$500 to buy nonfiction and fiction books in young adult, youth, and adult areas.

Friends of the Questa Public Library - Questa, NM.

$500 to provide each student at the Alta Vista Elementary/Intermediate school with a grade-appropriate book via a drive-by book giveaway event.

Glenwood Community Library - Glenwood, NM.

$500 to buy books for preschool, elementary, and high school youth and support the growing amount of homeschool families during the pandemic.

Gonzales Community School - Santa Fe, NM.

$500 to fund an author visit during the school's upcoming celebration of El día de los niños/El día de los libros.

Irene S. Sweetkind Public Library - Cochiti Lake, NM.

$500 to facilitate COVID-safe, home-based community art programming resulting in a mosaic to be installed at the library.

Shuter Library of Angel Fire - Angel Fire, NM.

$500 to buy children's books to the collection to support young families and increased homeschooling in the community during the pandemic.

Talpa Community Center Library - Talpa, NM.

$500 to purchase and install sanitizing equipment and social distancing barriers for the safety of patrons and staff.

Vista Grande Public Library - Santa Fe, New Mexico.

$500 to broaden youth collections related to the experience and history of First Nations, Hispanic/Latinx, African American, and LGBTQ+ communities as well as issues of immigration and social justice.